The child's illness from croup was of but two or three days' duration, but her last hours were frought was the only release. When she was taken ill Dr. King was called in to attend her, but her condition was not thought to be serious until day before yesterday, when the disease began to thought to be serious until day before yesterday, when the disease began to manifest itself in a dangerous form. Dr. Root was then called in consultation and all that medical power could do was done, but remedies failed and at 9 o'clock yesterday morning, after a night of great suffering, the little one was released from the trials of this world and passed to the great beyond. The child was like a budding flower in the family and the heartfelt sympathy of many friends goes out to the bereaved parents in their loss.

The funeral services will be held at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon from the family residence, 924 Second street.

Three Springville Young People All Get Into Jail.

(Special Correspondence.) Provo, Nov. 16.—Provo last night was isited by a trio from Springville, Bruce

Charles Groesbeck. The city officers were successful in bagsing all three of them. The first thing they did after arriving in Provo was to become thoroughly intoxicated. When the time came to return home Mr. Groesbeck could not be found by the other two, who started for Springville together. The couple tarried by the wayside and before morning dawned both were placed under arrest, charged with a sexual offense.

Mr. Dallin is a man about 49 years old and has a wife in Texas. Miss Groesbeck is a young woman of about 25 years. When Charley Groesbeck found that his companions had gone he went out onto the street, and spying a horse and buggy hitched to the curb, he took possession. The officers followed in hot pursuit, but aid not succeed in catching him. When he reached Springville he jumped from the buggy, tied the horse to the fence and went into hiding. Sheriff Store and Marshal Newell went over to Springville this morning and arrested Mr. Groesbeck and horoughly him and Kittie.

County Attorney Evans also drew up a complaint this morning charging one Isaac Tryan with fornication with Miss L'zzie Hull, both of Salem.
